Background: The School of Nursing at McMaster University was founded in 1946. Planning began in 1946. The first directors were Dr. Gladys J. Sharpe, 1946-1949 followed by Dr. Alma Reid, 1949-1970, Dr. Dorothy Kergan, 1970-1980, Dr. Susan French, Associate Dean of Health Sciences (Nursing) 1980-1990 and Dr. Andrea Baumann, Associate Dean of Health Sciences (Nursing), 1990-2004.

Content: The nucleus of the collection was gathered by Henrietta Alderson to write her book on the history of the school of nursing, Twenty-five years a-growing. Hamilton, Ont.: McMaster University, 1976. The records include curriculum planning material, curriculum material, photograph albums, scrapbooks, uniforms and oral histories.

Subsequent material has been added to the School of Nursing archive.
